

An International Symposium

Genocide Prevention: The Interaction of Comparative Research and Transitional Justice

מניעת רצח עם: הממשק שבין מחקר השוואתי וצדק מעברי

Focusing on the prevention of genocide, the symposium will explore the interface between lessons learned from the comparative research of past genocides, on the one hand, and the experience gained from post-genocide transitional justice processes, on the other. Can we learn from the past, and from dealing with the past, in order to prevent deterioration of social exclusionary tensions into genocide and mass atrocities?
