

The Contribution of the Eichmann Trial to International Criminal Law

תרומת משפט אייכמן למשפט הבינלאומי הפלילי

A Symposium Honoring Supreme Court Justice (ret.) Gabriel Bach on the Occasion of his 80th Birthday יום עיון לכבוד שופט בית המשפט העליון (בדימי) גבריאל בך, בהגיעו לגבורות

Monday, 14 January 2008 at 15:00

Litwinsky Senate Hall, Mt. Scopus Campus, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

15:00 Reception

15:30 Greetings:

Justice Dorit Beinisch
President, Supreme Court of Israel

Dr. Lars Hänsel
Director, Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Israel

Prof. Mordechai Kremnitzer
Bruce W. Wayne Professor of International Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

15:45-16:30 Reflections on the Eichmann Trial

Speaker Justice Gabriel Bach
Former Justice, Supreme Court of Israel

16:45-18:15 Panel I: The Eichmann Trial and Universal Jurisdiction

Chair Adv. Sigall Horovitz
Legal Officer, International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda

Speakers Prof. Dr. Albin Eser
Director Emeritus, Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Freiburg; former Judge, International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia

Prof. George Fletcher
Columbia University; Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Dr. Amnon Reichman
Haifa University

18:30-20:00 Panel II: From Universal Jurisdiction to International Jurisdiction

Chair Prof. Yoram Shachar
Interdisciplinary Center, Herzlia

Speakers Lord Dennis Byron
President, International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda

Judge Claudia Fenz
Reserve Trial Judge, Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia

Dr. Maya Steinitz
Latham & Watkins LLP, New York

- The symposium will take place in English -